

JAMES NICHOLS STREAM

SEPTEMBER 7, 1947 TO JUNE 9, 2017

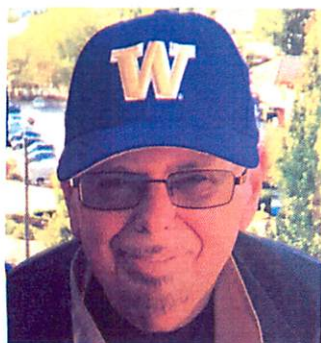

JAMES NICHOLS STREAM

September 7, 1947 – June 9, 2017

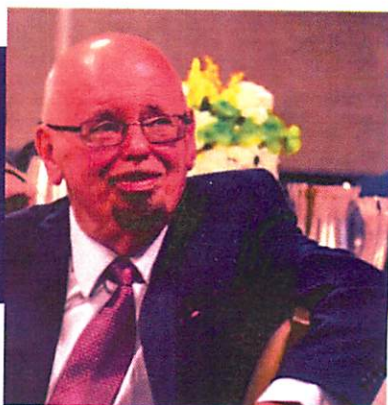

Jim Stream passed away peacefully on June 9, 2017 surrounded by his family. Jim was born on September 7, 1947 in Kirkland, Washington to parents, Kenneth and Phyllis Stream. He grew up outside of Seattle and graduated from Auburn Adventist Academy in 1965. Jim married the love of his life, Patricia Groshelle Stream, on June 12, 1969. He served in the United States Army from 1969 to 1971 in Fort Detrick, Maryland. And he graduated from the University of Washington in 1973.

Jim moved to Riverside, California in 1982, where he served as the Executive Director of The Arc of Riverside County for 30 years. Throughout his career, Jim provided tireless advocacy for people with developmental and intellectual disabilities. His loss will be felt deeply by all who knew and loved him. His only greater passion was for his family. Jim also loved sports, particularly baseball—a passion he shared with his brothers and his family.

Jim is survived by his loving wife, Patricia Stream; his three children, Jaime Stream Ries, Erin Stream, and Benjamin Stream; his three grandchildren, Alexander, Abigail, and Anna Ries; his son-in-law Micah Ries; his brothers, Ken Stream and Ted Stream; and his sisters, Marilyn Galusha and Anne Livengood. His loss will be felt deeply by all who knew and loved him.

A TRIBUTE TO THEIR FATHER

Jaime Ries

Jim's Daughter

I'm not sure words can adequately express who my dad was. Dad was humble, kind, gentle, passionate, witty, and brilliant. He was an exceptional man. And as parents go, you'd be hard-pressed to find a better one. His support was endless, his counsel was wise, and his correction was loving. I know that life here will go on, but for me the world will be a little dimmer without Dad in it. I already miss his laugh and the sound of his voice, reading stories to my kids. I can't thank him enough for the impact he made on my life, or for the example he was to my siblings and I on how to treat others. But I promise, Dad, to continue your legacy by teaching my kids empathy and kindness in all they do. I love you so much and I can't wait to see you again in heaven. Love, Jaime

Jim's Son

My father was humble, gentle, kind and hard-working. He was passionate about equality for those overlooked. It's truly amazing what he accomplished in a community that he loved so much. His presence was calming and encouraging. He meant the world to me and my family. He will be missed and in our hearts forever.
